In this article, the authors identified the following errors:

1. 'Role clarification in the management of medicine' subsection: In the sentence beginning "Clinical roles tend to overlap when..."; the duplicated text "across services and levels of care" needed to be removed.
2. 'Patient involvement in medication safety' subsection: In the sentence beginning "With the impending national rollout."; the duplicated text "actively involving patients is necessary to" needed to be removed.
3. References: Reference 1 needed to be corrected from "Organization WH. Medication without harm. World Health Organization; 2017" to "World Health Organization. Global Patient Safety Challenge: Medication Without Harm. World Health Organization; 2017. <http://www.who.int/patientsafety/medication-safety/>
